

MUSIC of the PSALMS

with Michel Guimont

Sponsored by the Arlington, VA and Washington, DC chapters of the National Association of Pastoral Musicians.

In ancient and modern spirituality, the chanting of psalms is believed to have the power of both purifying the soul and enabling the Christian to perceive God's inner purposes.

For cantors, music directors, instrumentalists, choir members and all interested in the history and usage of psalmody in worship.

The evening concludes with a reception where you can meet and chat with Mr. Guimont.

Cost:

$10.00 for DC or Arlington NPM Chapter members (either individual members or those from a parish with a parish chapter membership.) $15.00 for non-members.

Registration:

Please indicate your intention to attend by emailing bob.malinowski@verizon.net. Make checks payable to NPM Arlington. For more information email David Mathers at dmathers@stmaryfred.org.

Workshop Presenter:
Michel Guimont

Michel Guimont is Director of Music at Notre Dame Cathedral Basilica in Ottawa, Ont., Music Director of the University of Ottawa Choir and a composer of two complete Psalm Collections for GIA.
