DIRECTOR'S CORNER

Not either/or – it's both/and!

While we try not to be “pushy,” September is the time to remind everyone to renew their NPM Chapter Memberships, and to be sure National Memberships are current. Some are tempted to join either the local chapter or the national organization, but support of both is essential.

National membership supports the annual convention, institutes, etc., Pastoral Music magazine, the bi-monthly on-line Notebook, and of course, the staff who make it all happen.

Chapter membership makes possible the educational, musical, and spiritual support you receive close to home.

Without members there is no National Association of Pastoral Musicians!

WE are NPM!

This year, at the NPM National Convention in St. Louis, rather than the usual casual lunch, a Chapter Director's Leadership Retreat/Luncheon was led by Bob Batastini, retired editor of GIA Publications. Bob is now Director of the Grand Rapids, MI Chapter, where he has injected new life into the chapter (the site of next year's Annual Convention).

The retreat was titled: Leadership that “Wows” and included ideas for motivation, organization, programming, recruiting, sustaining membership, spirituality, efficiency, technology, funding, and building and maintaining successful, vibrant chapters. Whew!

But it can be done, and Bob is doing it in Grand Rapids. Two of our local musicians, Mary Beaudoin and Tom Stehle, serve on the National Committee for Chapters. They have been tasked with revising the NPM Chapter Manual, hoping to bring the efforts of all chapters up-to-date.

Bottom line!

The health of the National Association depends on the quality of local chapters. Arlington & DC have a history of maintaining vibrant chapters. But – you know what comes next – please be sure that your membership is current, encourage your pastor to enroll the parish, and talk it up among all the musicians of your parish!
